

Can I still request Adobe CS6 or other previous versions of software?

Previous versions of Adobe applications can no longer be purchased.

If your department currently has an existing license of previous versions of Adobe products, they may continue to be installed.

If you already have CS6 or another previous version installed, it will continue to work.